Organ Prelude

Meditation

*O Redeemer divine, our sole hope of salvation,
Eternal light. Of the earth and the sky,
We kneel in adoration,
O Savior, turn on us thy loving eye!*

*Send down on us the fire of Thy grace all consuming,
Whose wondrous might dispersed the powers of hell,
And rouse our slumbering souls with radiance all illumining,
That they may waken Thy mercy to tell!*

*O Christ bestow Thy blessing on us, we implore Thee,
Who here are gathered on penitent knee,
Accept the hymns we chant to Thine eternal glory
And these Thy gifts we return unto Thee!*

Le Cantique de Jean Racine/Gabriel Fauré

Call to Worship

Hymn

“Be Thou My Vision”

No. 642

Confession of Faith

Q. What is your only comfort in life and in death?

A. That I am not my own, but belong - body and soul, in life and in death - to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven: in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me whole-heartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him. Heidelberg Catechism, No. 1

Prayer

In Remembrance - Family and Colleagues

*If ye love me,
Keep my commandments,
And I will pray the Father,
And he shall give you another comforter,
That he may ‘bide with you forever,
E’en the spirit of truth.*

Hymn

“Amazing Grace!”

Benediction

Silent Prayer

*This world is beautiful and bright,
O scarce one cloud has dimmed my sky,
And yet no gloomy shades of night
Are gath'ring 'round me though I die;
Yet there's a lov'lier land of light,
Illum'd by Bethle'm's beaming Star;
E'en now it bursts upon my sight,
To be with Christ is better far.*

*True, life is sweet, and friends are dear,
And youth and health are pleasant things,
Yet, leave I all, without a tear,
No sad regret my bosom wrings.
The ties of earth are broken all,
My chainless soul, above yon star,
Shall wing its way beyond recall,
To be with Christ is better far.*

*And is this death? My soul is calm,
No sting is here, the strife is done;
Glory to God, and to the Lamb!
Sweet triumph! I have won, I've won!
A crown immortal, robes of white,
For me, for me in waiting are;
Arrayed in glory, clothed in light,
To be with Christ is better far.*

Early American Folk Hymn/Paul S. Jones

Postlude

Congregation Standing

Ah, this is the life.
The salty spray washing over the decks.
The seagulls crying,
The wind in your face.
This is the life.
Sailing is the life.
Carefree, fun, never the same.

HUGO vanDOOREN (1925 - 2017)

Hugo van Dooren M.D., P.S Born August 15, 1925 in Bandung, Indonesia; departed this earth on May 13th, 2017 in Tacoma, Washington. Hugo was a practicing psychiatrist in the Tacoma area from 1957-2012, and is lovingly remembered as a member of the medical community who dedicated his life to the health of those under his care. His family left Indonesia in 1938 and returned to the Netherlands, where Hugo grew up under the shadow of the Nazi occupation. He graduated from the University of Amsterdam and moved to the U.S. in 1953 with his first wife, Ada (Visser), to complete his psychiatric residency. He held positions at Western State Hospital, Tacoma General Hospital, St. Joseph's Hospital, and Puget Sound Hospital. Additionally, he maintained a private practice for nearly 45 years. He was an avid sailor, swimmer, competitive fencer, and devout consumer of ice cream. He served on the board of the Tacoma Philharmonic for many years. In life he had a peaceful, calming presence, and was known for his playful and light spirit. Hugo is survived by his wife Loretta, and their children Lara Rogland, Lars, and Adrian, and his children with Ada, Ivan, Michael, and Gwen Thompson. Lorie's daughters from her first marriage to Berton Andersen (Valorie Wigen, Sandy Andersen, April Greenwell, and Robin Andersen) count him as a loving father, as do Gladys, James, and Marta, grandchildren whom he adopted with Lorie. His daughter Joann preceded him in death. Hugo, affectionately called 'Opa,' is remembered and cherished by his many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The family invites friends and colleagues to a celebration of his life on Monday, June 26th, at Faith Presbyterian Church, where he joyfully worshiped for many years, at 10:00 a.m., with a reception to follow (620 South Shirley Street, Tacoma, WA 98465). Memorials may be made to the Tacoma Philharmonic Endowment (through the Broadway Center for the Performing Arts), or a mental health organization of the donor's choice.
