Welcome and Announcements

+Silent Prayer

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved; God will help her when morning dawns. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress. Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth! Amen. --from Psalm 46 (ESV)

+Confession of Sin

Silent Prayer

Corporate Prayer

Lord God! Eternal and Almighty Father, we acknowledge and confess before your holy majesty, that we are poor sinners, conceived and born in guilt and in corruption, prone to do evil, unable of ourselves to do any good, who, by reason of our depravity, transgress without end your holy commandments. Therefore, we have drawn upon ourselves, by your just sentence, condemnation and death. But, Oh Lord! with heartfelt sorrow we repent and deplore our offenses. We condemn ourselves and our evil ways, with true penitence beseeching that your grace may relieve our distress. Be pleased to have compassion upon us, O most gracious God! Father of all mercies, for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. And in removing our guilt and our pollution, grant us the daily increase of the grace of your Holy Spirit, that acknowledging from our inmost hearts our own unrighteousness, we may be touched with sorrow that shall work true repentance, and that your Spirit, mortifying all sin within us, may produce the fruits of holiness and of righteousness well pleasing in your sight. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Ephesians 2:4-6, 8 (ESV)

But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus. [...] For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God.

Matthew 6:9-13 (KJV)

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Scripture Lesson

Deuteronomy 24:1-4 (ESV)

¹ "When a man takes a wife and marries her, if then she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some indecency in her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house, and she departs out of his house, ² and if she goes and becomes another man's wife, ³ and the latter man hates her and writes her a certificate of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house, or if the latter man dies, who took her to be his wife, ⁴ then her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after she has been defiled, for that is an abomination before the Lord. And you shall not bring sin upon the land that the Lord your God is giving you for an inheritance.

THE LORD COMMUNES WITH US

The Lord's Supper

Procedure

- The order will generally be the balcony, and then the main floor starting in the back.
- There will be two lines, with congregants entering via the inside aisle and returning to their seats via the outside aisles.
- There are two options for bread: regular bread on the plate or packaged gluten free bread marked "GF" in the basket. There are two options for the cup: wine in colored cups or juice in clear cups.
- The mobility impaired will be served in their seats after the line ends. Please be sure to alert one of the servers if you have that need.
- You are welcome to participate in the Lord's Supper if you are a baptized Christian, a follower of Jesus Christ, and a faithful member or adherent of this or some other congregation, recognized as belonging to the fellowship of Christian believers. If this does not describe you, the pastors or elders would love to talk to you further about this after the service. Please introduce yourself to one of them. We are glad you are here and commend to you this prayer for your use during the time of the Lord's Supper.

Lord Jesus, help me to see that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but that through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross, and offering me forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, help me now to trust in you as my Savior and my King. Amen.

As our covenant children are able to express their faith in Jesus Christ, we want to encourage them to seek admission to the Lord's Table (Book of Church Order 57-1). Our denominational constitution requires that baptized children be able to articulate a credible, age-appropriate confession of faith to the elders in order to be admitted to the Table. If you have a child who would like to begin taking the Lord's Supper, please reach out to the pastors, elders, or the church office to schedule a time when you and your child can meet with a couple of our elders.

There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice
Which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgment given.

For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
But we make his love too narrow
By false limits of our own;
And we magnify his strictness
With a zeal he will not own.

There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.
There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.

If our love were but more simple,
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all gladness
In the joy of Christ our Lord.

*The Benediction

+Silent Prayer

O dear God, give us grace, that like Paul, David, and other saints we may highly prize our treasure, which is the same as theirs. Help us to cherish it above our possessions on earth and to thank you from the heart that you have honored us with it in preference to thousands of others. You could have let us go astray like those who know nothing of this treasure. You could have left us hardened like those who blaspheme and condemn our treasure. It is pure grace that you have placed us in your green pastures and have so richly provided us with the bread of heaven and the water of life. For these we owe you more than hearty thanks. Dear Lord Jesus Christ, prepare, strengthen, and establish us thoroughly in your eternal kingdom with all the dimension of your wisdom and knowledge. To you be praise and thanks in eternity. Amen.

– Martin Luther, A Prayer for After Attending Worship Services

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

Time, like an ever rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while life shall last
And our eternal home.

Adult Sunday School Class

This Sunday, Ryan Gross will continue his series: "Thanksgiving, Not Just a National Holiday But an Essential Component of Prayer."

We live in anxious times and often hear public and private commentators state some version of "this or that thing has NEVER been worse." It is true, we may easily point to many "things" that have never been worse than they are today, and we must not ignore those sad and often tragic realities.

But it is at least equally true that we may identify other "things" that have never been better than they are right now, and the Bible commands us to focus our thoughts there: "Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." (Philippians 4:8)

Such thoughts ought to produce hearts fuller of thanksgiving, and prayer and praise for our God who does all things well. Prayer and praise, with thanksgiving, is necessary for every Christian. The Apostle Paul commends it, and commands it, as the remedy for our anxieties.

For the next few weeks in this season of Thanksgiving we will highlight a few areas of our lives where things have never been better and where we should rejoice over what our good and gracious God has done, and is doing, for us. And we will trust that such considerations will encourage us to think of many other examples, and renew our worship and praise and prayer in coming days.

Women's Ministry of Faith Sunday School Class

The women's Sunday School class will be discussing how to look at cultural issues as a Christian. We'll be discussing homosexuality, transgenderism, evolution, overpopulation, and more. Join us in the Fellowship House and add your thoughts and insights.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHS Evening Worship Service

Please join us on November 15 for a special evening worship service highlighting Christian education and, in particular, God's faithfulness to Covenant High School. Covenant High School is a ministry of this church and was founded in 1992 to serve families in the south sound by providing a Christian high school for students in ninth through twelfth grades. Many of our members are alumni of Covenant High School, in addition to others who have served as faculty and staff. This year, our speaker will be founding principal, Dick Hannula. We will also have a report from Principal Wendy Tamminga and hear from students about their experience at Covenant. The Lord continues to use this church through its generosity and support to greatly bless the Covenant community, and we look forward to worshipping together as a brothers and sisters in Christ.

Baby Showers!

We have two upcoming baby showers scheduled and opportunities for us Faith Ladies (and girls!) to bond and be a blessing in our church family.

The first shower will be for Abby Jorgensen on Tuesday, November 3rd beginning at 7pm in DeSoto Hall. If you would like to contribute to the group gift, there is a box in the narthex and checks can be made out to Emily Downie. If you would like to purchase something from her registry, the QR code is below.

The second shower is for Danis Devoe on Thursday, November 12th in the Fellowship House. Group gift checks can be made out to Jami Johnsen and placed in the designated box in the Narthex. There is also a registry link available with the QR code below.

Please come be a part of this special season of celebrating the Lord blessing our church with these new covenant babies!

Men's Night of Prayer

The Men's Night of Prayer is Friday, October 30th, 9:00 pm in the sanctuary. This is a time of prayer and fellowship for our men. This year our time will be divided into two sessions of prayer, with a time of food and fellowship in-between. We encourage you, if you're able, to join us for the entire time, from 9:00 to midnight. But if you have boys you plan to bring, or need to be up early the next morning, or for some other reason you need to leave early, we hope you will join us for at least the first session of prayer and some of the time of fellowship in-between.

TRADESIES IS BACK — NEW DATE CONFIRMED!

Our Tradesies Clothing Swap has officially been rescheduled!

Due to the wonderful response to our last event, we're excited to give the ladies another opportunity to clean out their closets, pass along gently used clothing, and discover some new-to-you favorites!

Start setting aside those pieces you're ready to part with and join us for an evening of swapping and fellowship on Friday, November 6th at 6:30 pm in DeSoto Hall!

Mark your calendars — we can't wait to see you there!

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Better English

Better English on Monday evenings is in session! You really ought to consider joining us either Monday nights (6:50 pm to 8:30 pm) or during the Sunday School hour (room 301). You will love it!

Reasons to try out Better English on Sixth this year:

1. Easy and fun
2. Love your neighbor
3. No commitment necessary

No training needed. Be blessed by blessing our international friends!

If you are interested, please speak with Kathy Lewis or Jonathan Nichols, or simply come upstairs to Room 301 and give it a try. We think you'll love it!

PB&J Ministry

We are making sandwiches here at Faith each week on Thursday at 9:00 am - 10:30 am in DeSoto Hall for the Tacoma Rescue Mission. Please join us if you are able!

Nursery Volunteers Needed

We are seeking additional volunteers to help care for the children in our nursery during the services. This is one way in which we can keep our baptismal vows and also help provide young mothers with the ability to attend worship. If you are willing to help, please contact Farnoush Katouzian, our Nursery Supervisor. We hope to have enough volunteers that each volunteer would only serve a few times per year.

Tacoma Rescue Mission Meal Service

We serve a meal at the Tacoma Rescue Mission on the second Saturday of each month. Look for a bulletin announcement with details two weeks ahead of our turn to serve in the following month. If you are hoping to help us serve, please contact Sandy Milton, as you will need to complete a little paperwork a few days prior to your first time serving at the Mission.

Paid Nursery Attendant Position Available

The church is looking to hire nursery attendants to minister to our covenant children during both the 8:15 am and 11:00 am services. Applicants should be at least 18 years old, have experience with childcare, be able to follow safety and security policies and procedures, and should be regularly attending the alternate morning service. (We do not wish for this position to hinder someone from regular Sunday morning worship!) Please contact the church office if you are interested in applying.

WEEKLY ACTIVITY INFORMATION

Women's Ministry of Faith Tuesday Morning Bible Study

On Tuesday mornings the women's Bible Study is discussing Isaiah, using Kathleen Buswell Nielson's book Isaiah: The Lord Saves. From the Foreword, "Isaiah is quoted in the New Testament more than any other book in the Old Testament. ... Through Isaiah's prophecy, God's people were given a just sentence for their failings, comfort for their sins, and a reason for their hope. In short, Isaiah presents us with a God who keeps all his promises—including the good news of rebuilding a people for relationship with him by sending us his promised Son."

Please join us in the Fellowship House on Tuesday mornings at 9:30 am.

Tuesday Evening Women's Bible Study

Women's Tuesday Evening Bible Study will start up again on Tuesday, October 20 at 7:00 pm-8:30 pm in the ministry house. We will meet every 1st and 3rd Tuesday and finish the three remaining lessons in Joshua by Jen Wilkin on November 17.
